Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

To Whom It May Concern:

I take pleasure in stating that Mr. J. W. Tillinghast is an expert in piano tuning and repairing, and has done some very difficult work for me, exceeding what I expected could be done and I cheerfully recommend him to the public at large as trustworthy and skillful in the line he represents.

Very respectfully.

AT THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

Dr. Smith Preached a Special Sermon to the Juniors.

Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith, at the First Presbyterian church last night, preached the annual Thanksgiving sermon to the Greensboro Council No. 14, Junior Order United American Mechanics. A large congregation was present, the juniors attending in a body. Dr. Smith took for his text the third verse of Psalm Cxvii.: "The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad." His sermon was the result of much study and was educational, patriotic and inspiring. The sermon was eloquently and forcibly delivered, and the juniors are to be congratulated on their selection of this eloquent and able young divine to preach their annual sermon.

Yesterday at Centenary.

The retiring pastor, Rev. J. E. Gay, preached to an unusually large congregation at Centenary yesterday. Ae has served that church acceptably for the past three years, and in the discretion of the bishop and his cabinet he is sent to Brevard street, Charlotte for the coming year.

At the close of the sermon, yesterday, Dr. E. L. Stamey made a few timely and feeling remarks, which, we feel sure, expresssed the sentiment of all present. It was equivalent to the passage of a verbal resolution of thanks to Mr. Gay, and appreciation of his faithful and efficient services as pastor.

Rev. J. A. Bowles, son of Mr. D A. Bowles, of this city, preached to a large congregation at night.

At West Market Yesterday.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Weaver, who has closed four years of successful labor at West Market street church, preached to that congregation yesterday. It was not the good fortune of the writer to hear him, but his sermon yesterday is generally spoken of as one of the very best he has preached during his four years' ministry here. He leaves tomorrow for his new field at Salisbury. It has been during his pastorate that the present handsome church building was erected. In that he leaves behind him a lasting monument to his faithful and untiring efforts at church building. This is the visible sign, and it is hoped the spiritual building has been as great.

The Minstrels Coming.

On Friday December 2nd, one night only, the Academy of Music will be occupied by Richards and Pringle's—Rusco and Hollands Big Minstrel Festival.

This company number over fifty people, traveling in their own special train of cars; Their daily street parade is said to be the largest and most elaborate ever given with a minstrel company. The performance consists of the usual "First part" handsomely staged, with all new scenery and costume, new music, songs and witticisms. The olio is made up of twelve big acts which necessitates giving the performance without a single wait or drop of the curtain. The press speaks of them in the highest terms.

Foul Play Suspected

Weldon, N. C., Nov. 26—The oldest negro in Halifax county was Abram Carslarphew. He was 105 years old and voted the White man's ticket in the recent election. Last Monday he died and foul play is suspected. The white people of Faucett's township gave him decent burial and would not allow the negroes to throw even a shovel of dirt on the old man's grave,

Changing Pastors.

Rev. J. C. Rowe, the new pastor of West Market Street church, is expected to arrive tomorrow. Rev. T. E. Wagg, the new pastor of Centenary church, will probably arrive on Wednesday. Rev. Dr. Weaver and family leave tomorrow, while Rev. Mr. Gay and family expect to take their departure on Wednesday.

A New Dray

Washington People Want to Know If There Will Be Any Prosecutions—Here All Is Serene.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Nov. 28—At the department of justice the officials discredit the reports which have been in circulation for the past few days, that prosecutions are contemplated in the case of the men who are responsible for the driving out of Commissioner of Deeds Bunting, from Wilmington, North Carolina. One of the officials was seen Saturday, and he disclaimed any knowledge of the contemplated prosecutions, and stated that if indictments had been prepared, as has been said, he for one knew nothing about them. Attorney General Criggs himself disclaims any knowledge of the prosecutions, which leads to the belief that there is nothing in the statements. There is said to be no dout in the minds of the officials but that Bunting is a United States official, he being, it is said, an appointee of Judge Purnell, of the United States District Court of North Carolina. If there were to be any prosecutions in the case, the judge would be the one who ought to know, but from statements coming from North Carolina it appears that he too is as much in the dark as the officials at Washington profess to be.

Saturday a delegation of colored men, headed by Perry Carson, who has gained national fame in republican national conventions as the "representative" of the District of Columbia, called at the white house with the intention of asking federal interference in North and South Carolina. The delegation, however, owing to the absence of many of the members, did not present the protest to President McKinley. It is very doubtful any way had they sought the interview whether they would have gained an audience with President McKinley, as he is very busy with his congressional message just now.

Mr. Page K. Ayres, a prominent and influential young business man of Statesville, North Carolina, has been in the city for several days on personal business, stopping at the Ebbitt House. Mr. Ayers expresses the opinion that one of the first things which will be done by the state legislature will be the passage of a new election law. With the control of state affairs guaranteed to the intelligent element of the state, he says, that business will greatly improve and that the people will be as prosperous as in any state in the south.

An item which will be of interest to the people of Greensboro, is clipped from the correspondence of the Marlboro (South Carolina) representative of the Charleston News and Courier. It is to the effect that Mr. Toms, of Greensboro, has assumed control of the Marlboro graded schools in the place of the former superintendent, C. A. Graeser.

The city Postoffice has at last moved into its handsome new quarters, at the corner of 11th street and Pennsylvania avenue, just opposite the Evening Star office. The first mail from the new office was delivered Sunday morning.

Saturday night Washington had a taste of winter, heavy snow falling for about two hours, with the wind blowing a gale, and the mercury taking a big jump downwards. Snow fell more or less, all day Saturday, but melted as soon as it reached the ground, until night, when it assumed almost the proportions of a blizzard. In consequence of the storm, which is said to have been very severe east of the city, the mails from New York and Philadelphia, were delayed for several hours.

Upon application of Governor Russell, the navy department has authorized the loan of the condemned gunboat Horner to the state, for the use of the naval militia.

AGCEDE TO OUR DEMANDS.

Spaniards Make a Verbal Acceptance Today.

EUROPEAN NATIONS BITTER.

They Resent American Acquisition Of The Philippines—Will Probably Include The Carolines.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Nov. 28—The joint peace commission met this afternoon promptly at 2 o'clcok. The Spanish commissioners immediately announced their acceptance of the American demands. The two commissions were in separate session all the morning.

The American demands included the acquisition ot the Philippines and the Sulu group for twenty millions and it is understood the Americans will purchase the Caroline group. The question of the Cuban debt was left unsettled until the next meeting on Wednesday.

The Spanish acceptance was made verbally, the written acceptance to be presented later. The Spanish commissioners are sad at being authorized by their government to reply that the American propositions are inadmissible on legal principles, and that on the part of the Spanish all diplomatic resources have been exhausted and now the Spanish commission is asked to accept or reject the American propositions. In accepting them Spain is inspired by reasons of patriotism and humanity, and to avoid the horror of war she resigns herself to the power of the victor. She accepts the offered conditions in order to conclude the treaty for peace.

There is no denying that the whole of the European continent will bitterly resent the American acquisition of the Philipines. This sentiment is not confined to the diplomats, but here in Paris the opinion is constantly heard expressed in the highest French society.

Editor Stead, who has just returned from a tour of France, Belgium, Germany, Russia, Austria, Turkey and Italy, and who has seen the highest politicians in each country, and in some cases their rulers, said today:

"An immense majority of Europeans are absolutely ignorant of what has happened. They neither know nor care what occurs on the other hemisphere, but those Europeans who read the newspapers which form public opinion, are practically unanimous in their opposition, and discredit the motives of the war."

GERMANY'S RIGHT.

Washington, Nov. 28—The German charge d'affairs spent an hour with Secretary Hay early this morning. There is great reticence as to the cause of his visit, but it is believed it related to Germany's interest in the Sulu islands, as it is understood they claim the prior right to them.

American Arrested.

Berlin, Nov. 26—Frank Knaab, of New York, has been arrested on the charge of Lese Majeste, said to have been committed in a wine shop. Mr. Knaak was arrested while sitting with his wife in a fashionable restaurant. It is alleged that he referred in an offensive manner to the emperor and a person who heard him immediately summoned a policeman. Although the American had several witnesses who denied that he had made the alleged remark he was thrown into the jail. The officials of the United States embassy have done everything in their power to bring about his release and a large amount of bail has been offered.

One Rapist not Lynched.

Wilmington, N. C. Nov. 26.—John Brooks, a negro, convicted of raping a white woman at the last term of court in Brunswick county, was hanged in the jail yard today. He denied the crime up to last Thursday, when he made a confession, and again confessed his guilt on the gallows today.

OUR PROGRESS.

There is an old saying to the effect that one must go away from home to learn the news. In many respects it is true. We venture the assertion that there are many people in this state who do not know the standing of the state, in the matter of cotton manufactories. Of course these people are confined to that class who take it for granted that North Carolina is all right anyhow, and who don't take the trouble to inform themselves, and keep posted as to what is being done.

The Atlanta Journal, the best newspaper in the south, makes the following reference, editorially, to the advancement of North Carolina;

"The propress of North Carolina as a manufacturing state has been truly remarkable. Only a few years ago she was far out-classed by both Georgia and South Carolina, in cotton manufactures; now she has both the greatest number of cotton mills, and is the largest producer of cotton goods among the southern states.

"North Carolina is rich in water power, but no richer than Georgia, and she produces nothing like so much cotton as Georgia. Her rapid advance in cotton manufactures is therefore all the more creditable to her.

"North Carolina has also made much progress in woolen manufactures. The textile manufactures in that state are enterprising men, and their success has encouraged the investment of capital in various industries.

"Now that North Carolina has thrown off the miserable misgovernment which has afflicted her for several years past, we may expect to see her advance even more rapidly in material development and prosperity. The state is very rich in natural resources, and we are glad to see so fine a prospect of their development."

The last issue of the Orphans' Friend and Masonic Journal, is a handsomely illustrated eight-page edition, containing a complete "write up" of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, views of the grounds and buildings, with the interior of the chapel, dormitories, dining halls, machine shops, printing office, school rooms, etc. It is printed on good papar, with clear type, and the work is well done. We congratulate the management on that splendid edition, and feel sure it will be the means of interesting many who who have heretofore been careless in the matter of that most worthy institution—the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Those papers which have called attention to the fact that while the "great brutal contest, politely called football" was on between the University team and the Virginia team in Richmond, Trinity and Wake Forest were engaged in a contest (the annual debate) in Raleigh, which was calculated to improve the mind, had better have a care lest some crank charge them with having become friends of Trinity and Wake Forest and of fighting the University.

It is stated in our Washington special today, that Governor Russell has borrowed a gunboat from the navy department. What his corpulency wants with it is not stated. Can it be he that he intends to run the Hornet up Fayetteville street and anchor in the capitol square? Is not a double-barrel shot gun standing in one corner of the executive office, and a revolver convenient to his right hand, sufficient protection for his Excellency?

"Governor Russell is a peach," remarked a man this morning. Well, if he is that near it, we see no reason why he should not be impeached.

We have received a polite message from a saloon keeper saying he didn,t endorse a recent editorial in this paper. We are obliged to him for his candor, but really, it wasn't written with a view to securing his endorsement. We are therefore not disappointed.

THE IRISH EVANGELIST.

Rev. J. W. Lee is Still at it Down in Georgia.

From the Moultrie (Ga.) Observer, of the 24th we take the following:

The campaign against the saloons is warming and as it warms it expands in every direction. A strong impetus was added to the campaign by the arrival Tuesday of Dr. J. W. Lee, the most noted of the temperance lecturers of the south. He is here for a two weeks heat and will exercise his power to the fullest while here. He has the churches, and other anti-saloon elements united with him.

He opened in the Baptist church last night with a strong prohibition sermon. On account of the Thanksgiving services already arranged for the day, he has no appointment for this morning, but will lecture tonight probably in the M. E. church. While here he will hold services each night in the court house or some other place in Moultrie, and during the days he will deliver one or two lectures each day in various parts of the county where the executive committee sees fit to send him.

EMMA MYRKLE'S LAST PLAY.

For Congress Saturday Night—In Charlotte This Week.

The Myrkle and Harder company closed a most successful week's engagement at the Academy of Music, Saturday night, by presenting "For Congress." It is a good play and as were all their plays, was strongly presented. Miss Dean played the leading role in a most exquisite manner. She is a splendid actress and the audience became more and more pleased with her, at every performance. Mr. Glasgow has a most excellent company in every particular and a splendid repertoire as well. The company made many new business and personal friends while here. Miss Myrkle and Mr. Harder have appeared in Greensboro several times before and were already well known and liked. The company left yesterday for Charlotte where they appear this week. We commend them to Charlotte as one of the best popular priced companies on the road and assure the people of that city a week of entertainment.

Swallowed a Red Hot Hornet.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 26—William Gettig, of Sandy Valley, while at a corn-husking party, near his home, drank some hard cider from a barrel through a rubber tube. With the cider he also swallowed a hornet which had been in the barrel. The insect stung Gettig so badly internally that his throat swelled up, almost choking him. He was in a precarious condition for several hours but is now out of danger.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896. I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

HOBSON GOES TO ANNAPOLIS.

Instead of Back to Santiago to Raise the Colon.

Washington, Nov. 26—Naval Constructor Hobson arrived in Washington today from Norfolk and came directly to the navy department. He had just returned from his trip on the Vulcan to Cat Island, the scene of the casting away of the Maria Teresa He brought with him the report of Captain McCalla, who was in charge of the expedition sent on the Vulcan to endeavor to save the vessel. The report is merely an elaboration of the history of the journey and its results. The statement was reinforced by Constructor Hobson's verbal report to Acting Secretary Allen, today. Captain McCalla resumes his duties as captain of the Norfolk navy yard. Constructor Hobson goes to Annapolis, to resume his course in naval architecture. He was desirous of returning to Santiago and endeavoring to raise the Colon, but the department had made other arrangements that made this impracticable.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton.

QUITE UP TO DATE.

An Illustration of the Artfulness of the Modern Girl.

"The artfulness of the modern girl," remarked a woman who was a girl years ago, "passeth understanding. I have, for example, a young kinswoman of 18, whose mother, knowing that my husband was out of town, invited me to her house to tea one day. The girl was so sweet to me that in the end, though I hadn't the slightest idea of doing it when I set out, I asked her to come home with me and stay the night. She assented—not too eagerly—and as we walked toward the car together—she lives on Capitol Hill—she began to talk of young Mr. So-and-so, Commander So-and-so's son, who was so anxious to meet me. No woman is too old to be proof against flattery, so I expressed an interest in Mr. So-and-so, and told her she might bring him to see me some day.

"'It would be nice if he could come over this evening, wouldn't it?' she said thoughtfully. I agreed that it would.

"'You might have sent him a note if you had known,' I said, for at my age it isn't too often that young men want to make my acquaintance.

"'I tell you what,' she said, quite as if the idea had just occurred to her; 'I'll telephone to him and see if he has any other engagement.'

"We went into the nearest drug store, and idly I followed her to the telephone box, though she called my attention to something at the other end of the store. Central gave her the desired number—the young man's brother is a physician.

"'Is this Mr. So-and-so?' she asked.

"Pause.

"'It's all right about tonight,' she said. 'Goodby.'

"That's all she said. And then, and not till then, I realized how that innocent young thing had played it on me. As I said before, the artfulness of the modern girl passeth understanding."—Washington Post.

A MOST PECULIAR CASE.

Where the Money Came From to Pay the Attorney's Bill.

"Most peculiar case I ever had," mused the attorney who is still a favorite with those requiring a strong defense in the criminal courts. "You never saw a finer looking young fellow. He had a good face and a well shaped head. He was clean and neatly dressed. He talked well and looked you squarely in the eyes. When I went to the jail at his request, I took an immediate liking to him. It had been my business to study human nature and I was satisfied from the first that he had never committed the $10,000 robbery of which he stood accused.

"He told me his story, frankly and without reservation. I was convinced more firmly than ever of his innocence. He outlined his own defense by accounting for every minute of his time on the night of the robbery and informing me just where the witnesses to substantiate his statements could be seen. I found them, and they affirmed everything he had told me. It was as clear a case as I ever saw, and I went into court with the utmost confidence. The prosecution did the best it could under the circumstances, but we swept the board and the young man was acquitted by the jury's first ballot. He was very grateful, shaking hands with the judge, the jurymen and even the prosecuting attorney.

"'Now, sir,' he began, when we had reached the office, 'what do I owe you?'

"'Only what you can afford to pay me. The saving of an innocent man is something of a reward in itself.'

"'Well; I would like to pay you more, but at present I can only afford to give you half of the $10,000. Is that fair?'"—Detroit Free Press.

As a Brother.

A certain curate was of a painfully nervous temperament, and in consequence was constantly making awkward remarks—intended as compliments—to the bishop and others. Having distinguished himself in an unusual degree during a gathering of clergy to an afternoon tea at the bishop's palace, he was taken to task for his failings by a senior curate, who was one of his companions on the way home.

"Look here, Bruce," said the senior decidedly, "you are a donkey. Why cannot you keep quiet instead of making your asinine remarks? I am speaking to you now as a brother"—

Loud laughter interrupted him at this point, and for the moment he wondered why.—Baltimore News.

Great Watch, Great Cow.

Seven years ago a farmer living west of Webster City, Ia., hung his vest on the fence in the barnyard, and as a result of it a wonderful story is told.

A calf chewed up a pocket in the garment in which was a standard gold watch. Last week the animal, a staid old milk cow, was butchered for beef, and the timepiece was found in such a position between the lungs of the cow that the process of respiration, the closing in and filling the lungs, kept the stem winder wound up, and the watch had lost but four minutes in the seven years.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Family Resemblances.

Aunt—Whom does your new little sister most look like, your father or your mother?

Little Emma—Both. She has no teeth. That's like mommer. And she's hairless, like popper.—Toronto World.

The Papuans of the Malay coast of New Guinea are still in the most primitive state. They are wholly unacquainted with metals and make their weapons of stones, bones and wood.

It is only imperfection that complains of what is imperfect. The more perfect we are the more gentle and quiet we become toward the defects of others.—Fenelon.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the desease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and finds that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by, C. E. The Social Standing of most men is much higher than the sum of their income. To such men it must be good news to learn that they do not have to pinch themselves in order that they may pay the extravagant tailor's bills. We sell perfectly fitting clothes for business, semi-dress or full dress occasions of unquestionable style and superb qualities at prices which permit the saving of almost half tailor's bills. Our best clothes are made by the famous New York tailors Messrs. Fechheimer, Fishel & Co., whose label on every garment is a guarantee that the clothes are equal to custom made" in every particular. Therefore, whether it is a sack suit, a cutaway or a Prince Albert frock, a pair of trousers, a top coat or an overcoat that you need, do yourself the justice to at least see our offerings—and then go to your tailor if you like—but you won't.
